Your space...

Origins of a tradition...

In 1928 an exhibition phenomenon was born. The origins of organizing trade fairs and exhibitions in Brno, Czech Republic, date back nearly one hundred years. Brno has succeeded in enthraling generations of exhibitors and visitors with the sheer magnitude of world-class quality of trade fairs held at the Brno fairgrounds. As a result, Brno is rightfully recognized as “The Capital of Trade Fairs”.

City of warm-hearted meetings...

Brno is situated in the heart of Europe, in a sunny region of the Czech Republic called South Moravia, which is well noted for its excellent wines. Brno is situated at a recognized historical trading crossroads, and this prime location combined with welcoming Moravian hospitality attracts visitors from all over the world. Brno's romantic history and marketing spirit has inspired significant industrial and scientific achievements that have been proudly displayed at the spacious modern exhibition facilities.
